Message from Rugby WA

It has come to our attention here at RugbyWA that there have been some incidents of theft of personal items down at Britannia Reserve on Saturday's. These include bags and their contents such as phones, ipods, wallets etc, along with jackets etc that may appear to have phones and wallets in the pockets. We understand that this is extremely disappointing and totally unacceptable. Unfortunately as we are not aware of whom the culprits are, RugbyWA recommends that you take as few possessions to Britannia as possible and keep a very close eye on your teams bags, along with your personal bags and jackets etc. RugbyWA and the WAJRU take no responsibility for any lost or stolen items.

MATCH REPORTS OR MEMO

Nothing to report

'Bootsie' I have written a series of 8 children's books about a young boy 'Bootsie' who plays rugby union. The first book in the series is out now and can be ordered through my website www.bootsiebooks.com The books are about the tales of a boy whose whole life is playing this great game. He gets his name from the fact that early on in his life he continually turns up at training with his boots tied together by their shoelaces around his neck. His coach starts calling him 'Bootsie' and the name sticks. They are educational books as well because they teach the young readers a lot about positions, strategies, sportsmanship and laws of the game all whilst having a good laugh as well.

The books online are $16.00 but this also includes postage. I am selling them person to person at $12.00. If you get any interest I can come down the club with as many books as you require to keep the price down for your mums and dads.
